

To Whom It May Concern,

I am writing to highly recommend Simonson Construction for any future construction projects. Our recent collaboration with Simonson Construction on the 11,500 sq. ft., design/build childcare facility has been nothing short of exceptional.

From the initial planning stages to the final touches, Simonson Construction demonstrated professionalism, expertise, and a commitment to excellence. Their team consistently displayed a strong attention to detail, ensuring that every aspect of the project was skillfully executed.

Simonson Construction completed the project under budget, within the agreed-upon timeline, and maintained open lines of communication throughout the process. Any concerns or questions were promptly addressed, and their proactive approach to problem-solving ensured that any challenges were swiftly resolved.

In addition to their technical expertise, the professionalism and dedication demonstrated by the entire team at Simonson Construction truly set them apart. Their commitment to client satisfaction and willingness to go above and beyond to ensure a successful outcome make them a valuable partner for any construction project.

In conclusion, I wholeheartedly recommend Simonson Construction for any construction endeavor. Their exemplary work ethic, attention to detail, and commitment to excellence make them the ideal choice for any project, large or small.

Sincerely,

Tim Bartholomew
